Summary: On February 4, 2004, Brian Cragg representing RHC Communities, LLC, (RHC) spoke on the telephone with Karl Bemdesderfer, advisor to Cmmr. Kennedy. Tom Burhenn, Manager of Regulatory Operations, Southern California Edison Company (SCE), also participated in the conversation. Cragg described how the conditions added in the draft decision are unnecessary and would place RHC at a competitive disadvantage. Cragg noted that the lease between RHC and SCE’s already provided assurances that RHC’s operations would not interfere with SCE’s obligation to provide safe and reliable utility service.

Summary: On February 4, 2004, Sara Steck Myers, attorney for the Center for Energy Efficiency and Renewable Technologies (CEERT), met with Julie Fitch, advisor to Pres. Peevey, in San Francisco. Also present were David M. Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, Roosevelt Grant, advisor to Cmmr. Peevey, Steven Weissman, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, Michael Campbell, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch, John Galloway of the Energy Division, Vincent Bartolomucci, Manager of Contract Administration – Electric and Gas Procurement, and William Blattner, CPUC Relations Manager – Regulatory Affairs, San Diego Gas & Electric Company (SDG&E), Meredith Allen, Attorney – Regulatory Affairs, Sempra Energy, V. John White, Executive Director of CEERT, and Roby Roberts, Manager of Renewable Business Development, PPM Energy. Referring to the Renewable Portfolio Standard (RPS) Program, Myers expressed concern about what appeared to be a significant lapse of time in completing implementation of that program by the Commission. Myers stated that it was CEERT's position that only a few central tasks remained to be completed by the Commission to allow for a trigger a first RPS-compliant utility solicitation for renewable generation. Myers stated that she appreciated SDG&E's commitment and contribution to RPS implementation. White emphasized the need to facilitate timely and collaborative decision-making on the key remaining RPS implementation issues. White and Myers stated that limitations in Commission, utility, and party resources made focused, efficient decision-making critical. Roberts noted that creating an unnecessary, overly-prescriptive process could delay or even thwart implementation of SB 1078.

Summary: On February 11, 2004, Tim McCallion, President-Pacific Region, Verizon California Inc. (Verizon), met with Lester Wong, advisor to Pres. Peevey, in San Francisco. McCallion reviewed the history that resulted in the Commission setting interim UNE rates for Verizon based upon UNE rates adopted by the New Jersey Commission (NJC). McCallion noted that the Commission did not examine the reasonableness of specific cost components that the NJC used in setting those rates. McCallion stated that, based upon a remand, the NJC is relooking at the depreciation and cost of capital utilized in computing Verizon New Jersey's UNE rates and that if the NJC makes changes to these critical cost components then fairness dictates that Verizon's interim UNE rates in California should be adjusted.

2/17/04 A00-07-013 Pacific Gas and Electric Company, for review and recovery of costs recorded in the Electric Restructuring Costs Account for 1999 and forecast for 2000 and 2001.

Summary: On February 11, 2004, Christopher Danforth of the Office of Ratepayer Advocates (ORA), met with Manuel Ramirez, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, in San Francisco. Also present were Steve Linsey and Natalie Walsh, for ORA, and Regina DeAngelis, counsel for the ORA. Written materials (attached to the notice) were used. Walsh expressed ORA's position that no legal authority exists for PG&E's recovery of the electric restructuring costs and that the Commission, accordingly, could dispose of this application expeditiously, and without having to commit its limited staff to assessing the reasonableness of the requested expenses, by first considering the legal basis for the application. Linsey clarified the scope of the threshold legal issue presented by the proceeding as PG&E's right to recover electric restructuring costs as opposed to transition costs. Danforth addressed the extent to which PG&E seeks to recover the same costs in A00-07-013 as PG&E will recover through its Regulatory Asset in I02-04-026.
